Other men are now being notified of their call to the colors and they will form the nucleus of the second quota. They were expected to leave October 3, but that leaving time has been deferred and will thus give many a chance to spend a short vacation at their homes preparatory to service.

Brainerd has commenced to supply men for the engineer corp of the national army and enlistments are being received by Corporal Raymond Lowery of the regular army recruiting station. Shop boys are enlisting.

Examination of Men for Selective Draft is Limited

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 25.—The senate has limited the examination of men for the selective draft to those that can be clothed, fed and equipped. This limitation will prevent the examination of all registered men at one time as was desired by the war department. It is possible to have 1,000,000 men under arms by October 15, which is what the war department planned. If a hurried call for more men was issued by the president congress would have authorized money for the examination.

Great British Howitzers Show Why Hindenburg Retreated

This unusual photograph of three great British howitzers in action in Flanders shows why the Hindenburg line failed to hold, and account for the "Genius Retreat." These great guns simply pounded the Hindenburg line to bits and there was nothing left for the Germans to do but get out and away from them.

A drizzly morning was no bar to attendance at the big Free Auction and Market Day, when local merchants, 26 of them, offered wonderful bargains to the farmers in staple and other commodities. The rain put an end to potato digging and threshing and thus permitted many farmers to attend who would otherwise have been compelled to labor on the farm.

The inviting rooms of the Chamber of Commerce was the first objective and at 11:30, continuing to after 12 o'clock there was served a smoking hot luncheon shared by farmers and city people.

Tickets for the luncheon had been given out by the merchants and the courtesy was appreciated by the farmers.

The sight at the noon hour was an inspiring one. Merchants of Brainerd and their clerks were busy dishing out the luncheon and officiating as waiters. At the tables in the main room, spreading out to the parlors and the card rooms were seated farmers and their wives and children and a generous sprinkling of city cousins.

There were short talks. G. A. Beale, in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, thanked the farmers for attending and said he hoped to see more of these get together meetings. A. B. Hostetter of Duluth was an honored guest and talked potatoes to the farmers and did missionary work for the state potato growers convention which meets in Brainerd December 6 and 7.

So great was the crowd at the luncheon that the committee hurriedly replenished supplies, but it was with glad hearts, for it showed the farmers of Crow Wing county were coming in larger numbers than anyone had ever suspected.

The free public auction was held on the vacant lots at what is termed hay market square. More goods and chattels of the farmer, stock, etc., was sold by an auctioneer engaged by the Chamber of Commerce, without a cent of expense attaching to the farmer.

Altogether the day was a most successful one and did much to cement the era of good feeling between town and country.

Wilson to Direct Searching Inquiry of Death Sentence

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 25.—President Wilson is to direct a searching inquiry into the trial and conviction with death sentence imposed on Thomas J. Mooney, the alleged San Francisco bomb plotter, as a result of the labor protest that Mooney was railroaded.

President Wilson has been informed that the western labor unrest may be laid to the Mooney case and prominent labor leaders have advised the president that Mooney's case is being used extensively by disloyalists in stirring up socialist labor antagonism claiming the use of money and following it in other countries sufficiently to make it a case of international importance.

GERMANS LOSE ON RIGA FRONT

Leave Dead on Field When Russians Take Offensive.

Petrograd, Sept. 25.—Russian forces on the Riga front south of the Pakoff high road have taken the offensive, and, after a fierce struggle, occupied the German positions in the sector of Silzene, the Russian war office announces.

"The enemy lost severely, leaving over 400 corpses on the field. We captured 60 prisoners and 10 machine guns," the statement reported. The object of the Russian command in initiating this attack and other not dissimilar operations recently reported from the Riga-Dvinsk front, may very likely be the rectification of the line east of the Dvina at points where it is now weak.

Hurling Body Injures Man.

Marquette, Wis., Sept. 25.—William Williston, 23 years old, member of Company I, W. N. G., was fatally injured at Mauston, Wis., when he was struck by a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train while crossing the track to take an incoming train. His body was hurled 50 feet, breaking his neck. Death resulted a half hour later. The body was brought home. When Williston was struck his body, in passing through the air, hit the station agent, who was nearby, injuring him quite badly.

Reports sift in from the Cuyuna iron range that I. W. W. men from the Bisbee, Arizona district have drifted in.

Blasbe, Arizona, came into the lime light when hundreds of the I. W. W. were shipped out on trains and other communities objected to receiving them.

It is reported that several I. W. W.'s who have been unceremoniously ordered out of Bemidji have come to Northeast Brainerd and the authorities have been notified and a close watch is being kept.

KORNILOFF ABSOLVED

Exonerated From All Blame in Connection With Revolt.

Russian Embassy at Washington Issues Statement Asserting Uprising Came From Misunderstanding.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Absolution from all blame for the recent uprising against the Kerensky government in Russia is given General Korniloff by the Russian embassy here.

It was officially explained by the embassy that Korniloff's defection resulted from a "mutual misunderstanding" between him and Kerensky. This is taken as official forecast that Korniloff will not pay a penalty for his revolt.

In a lengthy statement the embassy explains that charges that Kerensky was behind the Korniloff uprising had their inception in negotiations between Kerensky and Korniloff and the later misunderstanding.

ASK EXEMPTION OF FARMERS

Spokesmen for Agriculturists Call on President.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Spokesmen for the nation's organized farmers asked President Wilson to order a more liberal application of the army draft law to farm labor in order that agriculture may do its part in the war. They urged that the government not only should exempt men who apply, but should make it its business to keep skilled farmers out of the military service and require them to remain at their posts as producers. The delegation that called at the White House was headed by a committee of the Federal Board of Farm Organizations and included the Legislative committee of the National Grange and members of the House and Senate from the great agricultural states. The Federal board's committee presented a memorial setting forth the farmers' situation and formally asking relief.

"The situation demands prompt and effective action on the part of the government. There is growing unrest and dissatisfaction on the farms, based in great part upon the well-founded belief that the purpose of the government is not carried out. The organized farmers of America look to you to set this matter right," the President was told.

London, Sept. 25.—In commenting on the latest Washington disclosures concerning the activities of Count von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States, the Koelnische Volkszeitung, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters, says:
"This affair, if true, has a very disagreeable character and it is highly regrettable. The American government, God knows how, was able to get hold apparently of the whole collection of German diplomatic documents, which it is now exploiting against us and Sweden."

ARGENTINE NAVY MOBILIZED
Preparations for Contingencies Are Being Made.
Buenos Aires, Sept. 25.—Mobilization of the Argentine navy has been ordered at a rendezvous 37 kilometers from Buenos Aires. There is also unusual military activity in the republic. Although this is ostensibly due to the general strike, a high official said that the general staff has its eyes open to "other necessities." German influences are believed to be behind the strike.
If there is a declaration of war, it is declared Argentina will send two divisions to Europe and will not be content with a passive attitude.

(From Dayton, Ohio Daily Paper)

No counterfeit of Billy Sunday is this Evangelist Henry W. Bromley, who began a series of tabernacle meetings for the East End churches this week at the corner of Bierce and Gerlaugh avenues. He is a gentleman and a scholar. Not only is he master of his own soul, but he is master of his own style of preaching. He is not wildly sensational, but he is not dull. He has certain natural histrionic impulses, it would seem, which compel him to enact an incident when he is describing it, whether he will or not. He evidently believes in the power of the anecdote as did the late Dwight L. Moody; for an apt anecdote which can be told in three minutes, sometimes saves 15 minutes of preaching, and leaves the hearer wiser and better. He uses a great many gestures, but they add to the effectiveness of his oratory, and they seem spontaneous—as they probably are. A great many popular expressions occur in his sermons, but no coarse slang.

Evangelist Henry W. Bromley is a Ph. D. D., and he looks it. He dresses immaculately in Prince Albert coat and pearl-gray striped trousers when he appears in the pulpit. The white necktie and white vest are invariable and appears to be

He hails from Wilmore, Ky., and he is more southern than northern in his speech, his accent, his gentlemanly bearing. Perhaps there are coarse and boorish southerners just the same as there are northerners. But add education and culture to natural southern charm and you have a product that can hardly be improved upon.

Evangelist Bromley loves Christ and hates sin. But he loves sinners and he does not castigate them with the severity of many professional evangelists. He has the faculty of showing them in their true light and of making them ashamed of themselves. He shows them the silliness of their sin, the grief that they are causing their families, their friends, their Lord and Master, and depths of degradation into which they have sunk through their sin. He does not flay them with verbal weapons that one may gather up in quantities in the brothels and low dives, but he expresses himself forcibly in good English.

But that don't mean that Rev. Bromley is pedantic and theological in his style of speaking. He uses the simplest language, and he is fond of idiom. He has picked up a great many homely sayings of the southplainness and directness that cannot be misunderstood. He hits off a good many good-natured witticisms to relieve the tension at times, and he is not above laughing at his own jokes when they are good ones. He can also be very serious and eloquent.

That good nature and consideration, that earnestness and conscientiousness, that telling of an old story in a new way, that interesting enactment of this story and that with excellent pantomime accompaniment, these things are going a great way toward making the evangelist a power for good and an influence for soul-saving in the East End. The campaign has just begun, and Rev. Bromley admits that he is saving his voice and his strength for the larger audiences that are bound to come later. But many who heard him last Sunday have been coming every day since that meeting. They have been attracted by the personality of the man rather than by anything else because the strongest sermons are to come later.

Mr. Bromley has been comparatively quiet so far, but he has not been lazy and idle. The grass never gets a chance to grow under his feet while

MISS MARIE KAISER

Invitations have been issued to the music lovers of Brainerd and vicinity for a recital to be given by Miss Marie Kaiser, the beautiful and popular New York concert soprano.

Miss Kaiser is an artist of distinction, her voice is full of warmth, admirably controlled and she has a personality that wins instantly.

This is Miss Kaiser's first tour since her appearance as principal soloist with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra and a rare treat is in store for local music lovers.

We understand Miss Kaiser will in some way attempt the seemingly impossible feat of singing duets with herself.

Ladies Guild Meeting

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold a business meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All are urged to be present to make plans for the picnic Saturday. The meeting will be called promptly and last until 3:30 o'clock.

"My Soldier Girl" Tonight

What will prove the prettiest show girl show, catchiest music, funniest comedy and most gorgeous production on tour this season is the brilliant musical spectacle "My Soldier Girl", a brand new offering coming to the Park Opera House tonight. If pretty girls, who can and do sing and dance, will make a musical show a success this entertainment should lead all other attractions for in this show from the rise to the fall of the final curtain there are girls—just girls in all their possibilities, probabilities, and all their charming attitudes. The authors have combined clever, snappy dialogue with tuneful melodies and the song hits of which there are more than a score, including the title song success "My Soldier Girl" which is the favorite number in the score. Some of the other songs are "A Wonderful Thing has Come Into My Life," "Dixie Doodle," "Naughty," "When I Dream of You," "Come on and Baby Me," "I Can't Believe Your Eyes," "Sailing Away on the Henry Clay," "Missouri," "Some Night" and a score of others.

Sugar Plums.

Of all candies perhaps the sugar plum boasts the most ancient lineage. It was the invention of one Julius Dragatus, a noted Roman baker and confectioner, a member of the family of the Fabii. Dragatus put forth the first specimen of this confection in the year 177 B. C. The bonbons of this variety were called dragati, after their inventor (dragates is French), and their manufacture constituted a monopoly enjoyed exclusively by the Fabian family. Whenever there was a birth or a marriage in that family a great distribution of dragati took place as an evidence of rejoicing. This custom is still retained by certain of the old families of Europe.

Production of Leghorns.

The average production of eggs by hens of all kinds and ages in the United States is 85. Unselected White Leghorns, however, produce an average of 130 eggs for the first year, 120 for the second, 110 for the third, 85 for the fourth and fall about 10 a year up to the eighth. These figures are from a bulletin of the Utah experiment station. If the first year production be low, the second will be high, and vice versa, the total production for three years being about the same.

Enid, Okla., Sept. 25.—A revolution of 2,000,000 malcontents, nationwide in scope, backed by the I. W. W. and 48 affiliated organizations, including the Working Class Union, in which it was planned to apply the torch to small cities, shoot officers of the government and demoralize communication, was planned for July 27 last, according to the testimony of Will Hoover, state witness in the trial of 11 alleged antidraft agitators from central Oklahoma.

MARGUERITE CLARK

At the Best Tomorrow
"Molly Make-Believe" an adaptation of the celebrated romantic story which has ranked among the "six best sellers" ever since it appeared in print, is the next starring vehicle in which delightful little Marguerite Clarke is to appear. This celebrated story is to be the Famous Players attraction on the Paramount program at the Best tomorrow.

The actual staging of "Molly Make-Believe" caused more excitement and amusement in the Famous Players studio than any film produced there for many months. This was due to the fact that it was considered advisable to build the stable scene in the studio. As a result, a horse, pig and several chickens were lodged in the building for three days.

In the book, it will be remembered, Molly writes a series of remarkably delightful letters to the injured Carl, cheering him up in his loneliness. Though the spirit of these letters has been maintained in the film adaptation, new elements have been woven into the story which make it a thoroughly absorbing romance, with many touches of comedy.

At the Best Tonight

Probably the most unusual photograph of the season is the Metro-Yorke production "The Haunted Pajamas," with Harold Lockwood as star, which will be seen at the Best theatre today. Adapted from the well known novel by Francis Perry Elliot and directed by Fred J. Balshofer, this production partakes of the nature of a farce, an extravaganza and a powerful dramatic story. Nothing like it has hitherto been seen on the screen.

Congregational Ladies Aid

The Ladies Aid of the First Congregational church will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 26th at the church, with Mrs. Losey and Mrs. George Greweck and Mrs. Carl Wright entertaining. Annual election of officers will be held.

Evangelical Aid

The German Evangelical Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. August Wendt, Second Ave. Northeast. Visitors and members are cordially welcome.

AIR RAID OVER LONDON

Six Killed and Score Hurt Reported
As Result of Attack of Teuton
Planes and Zeppelins—British Craft Engage Enemy.

Paris, Sept. 25.—According to the statement of the war office, repeated attacks were made by the Germans against the French lines, particularly north of Verdun. They were driven back under the French fire along a front of about a mile and a quarter. Secondary attacks north of Bezonvaux and near Beaumont were also repulsed with sanguinary losses. The statement says:

"On the right bank of the Meuse the Germans attacked our trenches north of Bois le Chaume, along a front of about two kilometers. The attack was carried out by four battalions supported by special assaulting troops. Disorganized by our fire the enemy was unable to reach our lines on the greater part of the front of the attack. In some trenches elements in the center where the enemy had succeeded in gaining a foothold, violent fighting ensued which ended to our advantage. Our soldiers, after inflicting heavy losses on the adversary, remained masters of their positions."

Go Out to Meet Attackers.
"At the same time, two secondary attacks were delivered, one north of Bezonvaux, the other southeast of Beaumont; these likewise suffered a sanguinary check by reason of the valor of our troops, who, leaving their own trenches, advanced fiercely to meet their assailants."

In the course of the afternoon, two new attempts carried out against our trenches in the Bois le Chaume resulted only in augmenting the number of losses suffered by the enemy without gaining for him the slightest advantage."

German Airplanes Raid England.
London, Sept. 25.—German airplanes and Zeppelin airships carried out simultaneous raids on England. The airplanes invaded the southeastern coast district of England and reached London while the airships struck north of London off the coast of Lincolnshire and Yorkshire.

British aircraft engaged the German airplanes in a battle of more than an hour over the Southeastern district of London. In addition to dropping bombs the Germans used a number of aerial torpedoes. The airplanes also crossed the counties of Kent and Essex. The casualties caused by the airplanes so far reported are six dead and about 20 injured.

MORE GERMAN PLOTS

New Disclosures of Teuton Unplicity to Be Given to Public.State Department Prepared to Publish Proof and Data of Facts Denied by Germany.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Further conviction of Germany on charges of high handed intrigues against the peace of other nations is promised shortly.

With revelations of Teuton bomb and poison plots in Roumania, government authorities hinted that it might be shown that Teutons had tried to spread disease in America as one of her insidious means of hampering war work.

The Teutons may have spread the germs of lockjaw in courtplaster recently found in the United States. The senate also is promised an expose of German attempts to stir up anti-American feeling in Japan and anti-Japanese spirit in America. Viscount Ishii, now in this country with the Japanese commission, has already hinted at such intrigue. Senator King, who declared the Austrian embassy is subsidizing foreign language papers has data on the Japanese plot.

New Disclosures Planned.

Disclosures as sensational as any yet published are being held in reserve and may be made public at any time.

The state department has a list of persons who received German money in the passport frauds, the munitions plots and practically all the other activities of German intrigue here which took place between the beginning of the war in August, 1914, and the entry of the United States into the conflict.

The government is prepared to make public a photographic reproduction of the Eckhardt-Cronholm Mexico City plot letter, the authenticity of which has been denied.

To the jealous eye the success of another is the unpardonable crime.—Milwaukee News.

The first airship made a successful flight in 1901, and the first airplane four years later.

FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD

A war correspondent says:—
"Strange as it may seem, flowers are blooming everywhere on the battlefields of France."

Why strange, that on the blood-stained sod
Enriched by life that heroes gave,
These sweet remembrances of God
Should bloom above each lowly grave?

Where Frenchmen fought and bled and died
To keep their land from bondage free
What wonder, that above their graves
Should bloom the fragrant fleur-de-lis?

And wherefore strange, that where these hearts
Repelled the foe with sword and lance
And gave their all for country's need
Should bloom the lilies fair of France?

Old England sent her hero sons
And all her homes now mourn their dead;
But there where gushed her heart's warm blood
Spring up the roses, white and red.

And Ireland, sore bereft and sad—
Green Isle—a gem of sterling worth.
Where your loved sons laid down their lives
The shamrock mantles all the earth.

The harebell from the Scottish dale,
The heather from the upland downs,
Spring up to mark the resting place
Where Scotland's laddies won their crowns.

O'er Belgium's countess, martyred dead,
Dead by a dastard's pointed dart—
A pitying heaven spreads her wreaths
Of cypress and the bleeding heart.

And Canada, rock-bound and cold,
Yours was the offering of your all.
Above your graves the violets bloom
And the snowdrops lighten up the pall.

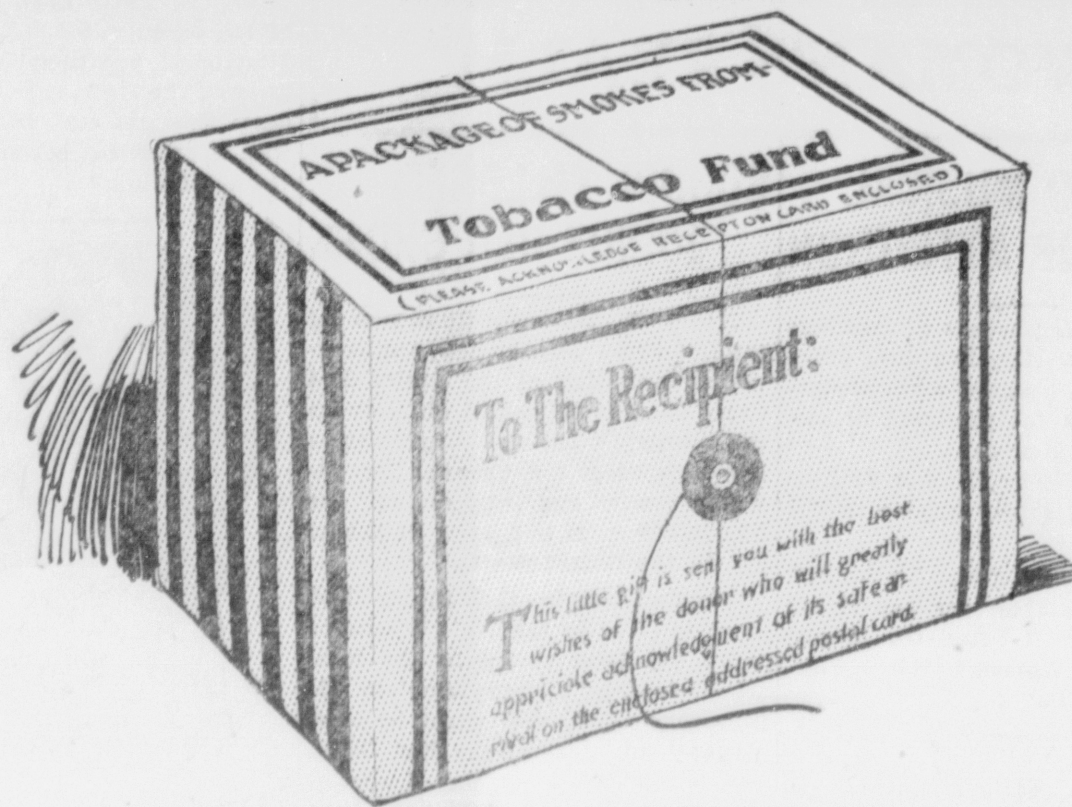

O, loved America! Her gift
Is of her life-blood, rich and warm
That poured upon the troubled world
Would quell the fury of the storm.

She seeks the reign of righteous law
And where Columbia's stars shall shine
And where the earth drinks up her blood
Shall spring the stately columbine.

And over all the blood-stained lands
Where God brings beauty to each tomb
Forever there, as in our hearts,
The sweet forget-me-nots will bloom.

Enough money to supply 157 smoke kits has been contributed by Brainerd and other people and has been remitted to The American Tobacco company of New York city.

Our boys over there are having a hard time getting the tobacco they are used to. They don't like the strong stuff, but they do like the old familiar "makin's" and pipe tobacco and the American made cigarettes. The Brainerd Daily Dispatch is making it easy for you to help the boys.

For every quarter sent in The Brainerd Daily Dispatch has arranged for the purchase of smoking materials retailing at 55 cents in Brainerd, which will be sent to the boys abroad and distributed by the Red Cross.

Here's what each quarter buys for the American soldiers in France:
2 Packages of Lucky Strike Cigarettes, retail price .30
3 Packages of Bull Durham Cigarettes, retail price .15
3 Books Bull Durham Cigarette papers

1 Tin of Tuxedo Tobacco, retail price 10
4 Books of Tuxedo Cigarette papers 55

Mrs. Ed Levant was the first lady to contribute and was followed shortly after by Mrs. C. W. Eastman who has a boy at the front. Both ladies know that the soldiers are better fighting men if they get their home tobacco.

Dr. J. A. Thabes gave his contribution Monday and said he was glad to send his share to the fund. It was a worthy undertaking.

Lewis Sandberg is a smoker and he said he knew what it was to be without tobacco and just how a man felt when he could not get his brand of home smokes. "Here's my fifty cents to help the boys," he said.

Rupert S. Johnston, of the Cochran & Johnston barber shop, was the first man in with a contribution Tuesday morning. He gave fifty cents.

I. U. White followed with $2, being a dollar for himself and a dollar for his brother, C. B. White. "It's a very good idea," said I. U., "and we're glad to boost it along."

He was hardly out of the door before J. W. Koop came in.

"Here's a dollar," said he. "I've got a boy, Lament, in the aviation corps and you can't tell how soon he will be at the battle front. I want the boys to get their good old American tobacco. It will make them better fighters when you have them satisfied with their smokes."

Gelett Burgess has written a bunch of fine verses entitled "Smokes for Soldiers" which just express the sentiment of this smoke column and they will be published tomorrow.

Mrs. S. Buttress, of 113 Farrar street, visited the Dispatch this morning and contributed her dollar.

The boys should have their tobacco by all means and they can't be any more particular about it than we ladies are of our tea. I am glad to help the boys at the front," she said.

F. A. Farrar contributed $5. "I know how it feels to be without a smoke," he said. "I don't want any soldier at the front to suffer for want of tobacco."

And the remarkable part about all these tobacco contributions is that every contributor comes in with a smile on his face. It's just as though he saw the soldier boy in the trenches in France light up with a smile when the tobacco kit is put in his hands. In a way the contributor's face reflects the good deed he's doing.

Washing the Dishes.
A convenient device in the form of a good sized depression in the center or end of a kitchen sink does away with the necessity of drawing and emptying water for a separate pan. By the addition of a double set of sieves the dishes may be washed and drained without being touched by the hands.

Her Proposal.
"Ah, George, did you propose to Vivian?"
"No. She made the proposal before I had a chance to say anything."

"She did? What did she say?"
"She proposed that I should leave the house immediately, and I did."

Simplicity.
I am convinced, both by faith and experience, that to maintain oneself on this earth is not a hardship, but a pastime if we will live simply and wisely, as the pursuits of the simpler nations are still the sports of the more artificial.—Thoreau.

In the United States only one farm in seven of more than twenty acres now supports sheep, and consequently we import nearly a third of a billion pounds of wool yearly.

If lovers were wise they would save at least two-thirds of the tender things they say to each other before marriage and ladle them out after the honeymoon.

EAT LESS MEAT
IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

GEORGE A. ELDER SENTENCED MONDAY

Motion for New Trial Based on Newly Discovered Evidence, Denied by Judge McClenahan

SENTENCE IS THEN IMPOSED

Fine of $5,000 or Three Years in Koochiching County Jail, Stay of 30 Days Granted

In district court Monday morning, Judge McClenahan heard the motion of the defendant George A. Elder for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence which could not be produced at the last trial, when the Duluth bond broker, charged with attempting to influence the official actions of County Treasurer Flagarty of Koochiching county, was found guilty by a jury.

For the state there appeared Assistant State's Attorney John E. Palmer of St. Paul and N. B. Arnold of Duluth. Senator C. E. Adams of Duluth appeared for Mr. Elder.

The newly discovered evidence was contained in an affidavit by Frank S. Lang, register of deeds of Koochiching county, who swore that he was the man who had come into the county treasurer's office toward the end of the conversation between Mr. Elder and the county treasurer on or about Sept. 30, 1915, and had heard part of the conversation.

His affidavit states that when he entered the office he saw Elder standing near the county treasurer with some bills in his hand, and as he, Lang, entered, Elder turned to him and said:

"What do you think, Lang. I want to pay Fogarty $50 for getting out that county statement for me and he won't take it. If I had had to send an accountant up here to get it out for me, it would have cost me from $100 to $150 and it wouldn't have been as good as a Pat got out for me. This is getting away too easy."

To which statement by Elder, Lang said the treasurer replied:

"I don't want any pay. That is all right. I don't want anything, but I will smoke on you."

Mr. Lang also swore that several days afterward he talked with Fogarty again and advised him to take the $50 as he had earned it, by doing the work he had done in getting out the special tax statements, and that Fogarty replied to this that he thought the taking of the money might be misunderstood or misconstrued by the public and he preferred not to take it.

Mr. Lang further said that he had never talked with anybody about his knowledge of the case until County Treasurer Fogarty returned to International Falls from the trial at Brainerd and told Lang that his name had been mentioned as possibly the third party who had come in and interrupted the conversation between Elder and Fogarty and Lang said he then related the facts to Fogarty before the verdict was returned it is claimed, substantially as set out in Mr. Lang's affidavit.

F. J. McPartlin, one of the attorneys for Mr. Elder, in his affidavit swore that after Mr. Elder had testified that he thought Lang might have been the man that came into the treasurer's office, he, Mr. McPartlin, asked Elder if Lang knew anything about the conversation and Elder said he had never talked with Lang about it and did not believe that Lang knew anything about the conversation.

Affidavits by C. E. Adams, F. J. McPartlin and George A. Elder explained their failure to produce Lang's testimony at the former trial.

The court refused to grant the motion for a new trial and stated that due diligence had not been shown by the defendant in producing the testimony of Lang at the first trial, and that he could not grant the motion.

He then proceeded to impose sentence upon the defendant in the form of a fine in the sum of $5,000 and in default of payment thereof that Elder be confined in the Koochiching county jail until the fine be paid, but not to exceed three years. A stay of 30 days was granted in

The service begins this evening at 7:30 o'clock and there will be a half hour of chorus singing which will be most inspiring to all. Come early and have a part in the singing.

Last night there was a meeting on the street corner and a large crowd gathered to hear the singing and the words spoken by the evangelist party and the Salvation Army people.

At the conclusion of the street meeting the big band led the way to the Army barracks where there was a union of the forces of the tabernacle party and the Army members.

The little hall was filled to the doors and all listened with great interest to the words of Rev. B. H. Shadduck. Mr. Shadduck is a missionary among the mountaineers of West Virginia a number of years and had a host of entertaining experiences in which he related with effectiveness.

In the preliminary service Miss McCague sang a solo and gave a pianologue "My Lord and I." The originality of this novelty made an impression upon all. In her singing she accompanied herself with a guitar.

Mr. Shadduck stated that the churches had endeavored to do work among the mountaineers with an uneducated ministry and the attempt had failed. Some of these unlettered clergy made gross and ridiculous interpretations of the Scripture and their lives did not correspond to their deep emotional appeals in the pulpit.

In the counties in which the speaker worked two-thirds of the voters sold their votes and thought nothing wrong about it. Morality was of the lowest type and left the impression that the people did not possess a conscience about right and wrong.

While Mr. Shadduck worked among these people five murders were committed and only one of the guilty parties was sent to the penitentiary. This was the first conviction secured in this district in twenty years.

In the wet and dry campaign in that state the issue was saved for the dry forces by one young lady. The vote was so close that the presiding officer was needed to win. The young lady in question was engaged to marry the son of this man, she went to the legislature took her seat by the side of her prospective father-in-law and told him she would not marry into the family unless he voted right. Her entreaty prevailed and the issue was saved by the one vote.

"Booze" First Meant "Drink."

The word "booze" came to us before the fourteenth century, seemingly from the Dutch, in the form "bous" or "house." At that time, as noun or verb, it meant merely "drink," and to speak of a gentleman as "housing" his wine was not libelous or even derogatory. Somehow it acquired the added suggestion of excess and bad company, and by the time of Shakespeare we find it in glossaries of the argot of thieves and gypsies. The process may be understood when we think of the sinister meaning we often attach to the simple word "drink," which might conceivably run the same course if we misuse it often enough.—Harper's.

Vimy Ridge Survivor Killed. Missoula, Mont., Sept. 25.—E. C. Cross, a survivor of the desperate struggle at Vimy Ridge on the western war front, has been killed here in an automobile accident. He was riding with R. G. Thompson of Seattle, when the bursting of a tire caused the car to turn turtle. Cross was crushed and died instantly. Thompson escaped with severe bruises. Cross held an honorable discharge and had applied for enlistment in the American forces, but was rejected on account of lung trouble contracted from gas.

BIG CUT MADE IN PRICES OF STEEL

Agreement Between War Board and Manufacturers Approved by President Wilson.

COKE PRICE TO BE CUT

Reduction Amounts to 62.5 Per Cent—Wage Scale Not to Be Affected, According to Schedule Which Is Subject to Revision.

Washington, Sept. 25.—President Wilson has approved an agreement between the war industries board and the steel men for figures on steel and its products, covering reductions of from 50 to 70 per cent.

Under powers conferred in the priority of transportation act the war industries board will supervise distribution of steel in a manner best calculated to win the war.

Prices Agreed Upon Announced. Steel prices agreed upon between the government and producers were announced as follows:

Steel bars at Pittsburgh and Chicago, $2.96 per hundredweight. The recent price was $3.50. Reduction, 47.5 per cent.
Steel plates—Prices agreed upon, $3.25 hundredweight, recent prices, $11 hundredweight. Reduction, 70.5 per cent.
Pig iron—Price agreed upon, $31 gross ton; recent price, $55. Reduction, 43.1 per cent.
Steel shapes—Basic Chicago and Pittsburgh. Price agreed on, $3 hundredweight; recent price, $6 hundredweight. Reduction, 50 per cent.
Other prices agreed upon, all subject to revision Jan. 1, 1918, but to become effective immediately, follow:

No Wage Reduction.

The announcement was accompanied by the following statement:

"It was stipulated, first, that there should be no reduction in the present rate of wages; second, that the prices above named should be made to the public and to the Allies as well as to the government; third, that the steel men pledged themselves to exert every effort necessary to keep up the production to the maximum of the past, so long as the war lasts.

To Facilitate Production.

"Measures will be taken by the war industries board for placing orders and supervising the output of the steel mills in such manner as to facilitate and expedite the requirements of the government and its allies for war purposes and to supply the needs of the public according to their public importance and in the best interest of all, as far as practicable.

"A spirit of co-operation was manifested by the steel men and no doubt is entertained that every effort would be made to bring the production as nearly as possible up to extraordinary demands resulting from the war."

BRIBE CHARGES BASED ON RUMOR

Representative Heflin Says He Has No Proof That Solons Accepted Money.

PROOFS ARE DEMANDED

Congressman Norton Calls for Punishment of Accusing Solons If Assertions Are False—Bitter in Arraignment.

Washington, Sept. 25.—A resolution calling on Representatives Heflin of Alabama and Howard of Georgia to prove insinuations made in published interviews that members of the house benefited directly from the fund of $50,000 asked by former Ambassador Bernstorff to influence the American congress against war, is promised by Representative Norton of North Dakota, speaking on the floor of the house.

"The gentleman from Alabama says he can point out 13 or 14 members who have acted suspiciously, inferring that they received part of the $50,000 granted Ambassador Bernstorff," said Mr. Norton. "I don't know of any greater injury to our form of government than to charge that fellow members are corrupt and have taken money to influence their actions.

"I don't believe there is a scintilla of truth in the statement. If it is true no punishment is severe enough for those members.

Proof of Statement Demanded.

"If it is false, apologies won't correct the injury. If the gentleman from Alabama should go down on his narrow bones he could not undo the injury he has done.

"I know of no punishment severe enough to be dealt out to that kind of character. The gentleman from Alabama should be obliged to prove his charges or accept the punishment he so richly deserves."

Mr. Norton read an interview with Representative W. S. Howard of Georgia, in which the latter was reported to have said some members "look more prosperous than before."

"The gentleman from Georgia should be required to prove his statements. I shall offer a resolution calling upon them to submit proof. If they cannot prove them, they should take the consequences."

Mr. Heflin denied that he had charged that any member of the house had received any of the Bernstorff money.

"I have said that some members of the house have acted suspiciously," he said.

Admits Lack of Proof.

"Name them," shouted several members.

"I can't prove anything," continued Heflin, "but the Bible tells me that a tree is known by its fruit, and I judge men by their actions."

"If I had proofs I would name them."

This brought cries of derision from all parts of the chamber, which were so vigorous that the speaker had to rap for order.

Howard Repudiates Interview.

Representative Howard told of his conversation with a reporter, which was to the effect that if Bernstorff expected to influence congress with $50,000 he was "a cheap skate." He was interrupted by Representative H. J. Moore of Pennsylvania, who read the purported interview in which Howard was quoted as saying that he believed he could pick out members who had acted suspiciously, and some of them looked more prosperous than they did.

"Did you use any such language?" asked Mr. Moore.

"I never said that nor anything like that," declared Mr. Howard.

Prefers Suicide to War.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Torn between duty to his country and his orphaned sister and brother, Yvon Jacobson, 25 years old, of Menominee, Mich., chose death. Jacobson's body is in the morgue at Waukegan, Ill. He leaped from a Northwestern passenger train. His exemption board had refused his claims for release from selective service despite the affidavits of several citizens. He was en route to Battle Creek, Mich., after doctors had prevented his suicide. The body probably will be sent to Menominee.

SOME ARMY TERMS

Light For the Layman Not Posted on Military Matters.

HOW ARMY UNITS ARE NAMED.

The Various Designations From a Corps to a Squad—In Speaking of a Company, Troop or Battery the Letter Should Always Be Named First.

To the ordinary civilian, who is not particularly well posted on military matters, an interpretation of the army terms in general use may prove of interest. The following are among those that are most constantly employed:

A corps is two or more divisions and is commanded by a major general. A division is composed of two or more brigades and is also commanded by a major general.

A brigade, commanded by a brigadier general, is composed of two or more regiments and independent companies or battalions.

A regiment of infantry consists of twelve line companies and three additional companies. It is commanded by a colonel, with the following additional officers: One lieutenant colonel, three majors, fifteen captains as company commanders, three of them also being members of the colonel's staff as adjutant, quartermaster and commissary; two lieutenants to each company, one lieutenant acting on each of the three majors' staffs.

A battalion is made up of four companies and is commanded by a major.

A company of infantry consists of about 150 men, divided into two platoons; platoons are divided into squads. A platoon is commanded by a lieutenant—a commissioned officer; two or more squads are commanded by a sergeant; a squad is commanded by a corporal and comprises seven men besides the corporal.

A company of cavalry is called a troop, and a battalion of cavalry is called a squadron.

A company of artillery is called a battery. It is divided into sections, and there may be different numbers of guns, according to the kind of artillery.

Three batteries of artillery make a battalion.

The word "company," "troop" or "battery" should not be used before the letter, as "Company B." It would be the same as to say "Street Jackson." The letter comes first, just as the numeral comes before the word regiment—"Second regiment," not "Regiment Second."

Troops are either "federals" (regular) or national guard. Every male citizen of the United States between the ages of eighteen and forty-five is a member of the militia. Never use the word when referring to organized bodies of troops.

There are no such things as "militia officials" or "army officials" in military parlance. They are national guard and army officers.

A skirmish, engagement, brush, fight or encounter is not a battle.

A battle is an engagement for the possession of a certain point and is general in its character. Large bodies of troops are engaged—more than a brigade; otherwise the fight is an engagement, a skirmish or an encounter.

Never say "Captain Jones and his soldiers of Company A." Say "A company commanded by Captain Jones did so and so."

Any irregular body of troops less than a company or troops is called a detachment unless it is a platoon or squad or a section of artillery. Never say "Lieutenant Jones and a number of men" from such and such an organization. Say "A detachment from a company, commanded by Lieutenant Jones."

Ammunition is spoken of in terms of rounds. "Fifty rounds" means fifty cartridges—fifty shots.

Never say muskets. There are not any. Artillery carry pistols and not revolvers.

Troops generally move in columns. The usual column is four men abreast, two ranks comprising a squad, with the corporal as the man on the left in the rear rank. They go into the firing line in "extended order," sometimes referred to as a skirmish line. Troops are sent into battle or engagement as the firing line, the support and the reserve. The tactical unit in line of battle or engagement is the battalion.

A picket consists of several men, generally a squad. One of a picket is a sentinel or sentry. In front and on the flanks of all troops in camp are outposts—pickets. All troops doing guard duty, picket duty, outpost duty, etc., are commanded by "the officers of the day," so designated for a period of twenty-four hours, as are the troops on guard duty.

To Prevent Old Age Coming Too Soon!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such products. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anurie," says the world-famed Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anurie from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it thirty-seven times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

New Ulm, Minn.—"Over twenty years ago I started to take 'Favorite Prescription.' It kept me in splendid condition during the expectant period, and I had a comparatively easy time and was in unusual health afterwards; also during middle life and it certainly has helped me through this critical period.

I do not suffer with hot flashes or dizziness at all or any other ailment which I have known other women to have at this time of life. I am glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I also have the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, which I appreciate very much."
